Summer Games at Towson

The culmination of a Special Olympics sports season is the state competition. After months of training, 48 track and field athletes, 13 softball players, 12 swimmers, and 23 bocce players spent 3 June days participating in qualifiers and competition at Towson University.

Samantha Oliver pushes past a competitor in the 100 meter dash.

The track and field events consisted of 50, 100, 200, and 400 meter runs and walks, shotput, turbojav, softball throws, running and standing long jumps, 4x100 relays, and pentathlon events. Several athletes participated in the newest sport of turbo-jav. This year's pentathlon athletes were Larry Mills, Terrel Nowlin, Shaun Ridley, Thomas Smith, Tiffany Johnson, Jayme Lorraine, and newcomer Wayne Carter. They participated in 100 and 400 meter races, running long jump, shotput, and high jump events, accumulated points, and were awarded medals based on these scores. The competition this year was quite close, demonstrating the abilities of the athletes.

Our athletes competed in three events; 40 of our 48 athletes competed in relays as well. The athletes who participated in track and field events were: Michael Anthony, Joey Barnes, Trisha Baynard, Angela Buckler, Emoni Butler, Brandon Chan, Casey

Equestrian Athletes Brave the Heat to Compete

In cooperation with the Greenwell Equestrian Program, St. Mary's athletes have the opportunity to learn the skills to ride, walk, and handle horses. The program is coordinated by Julie Wathen and runs in spring and fall sessions. During the spring session, local athletes prepare for the annual Maryland State competition at the Equestrian Center in Upper Marlboro.

This year, 12 athletes prepared for the state competition held on June 2nd. With the help of nearly 40 Greenwell volunteers and the horses, our athletes were ready for the walk-trot, walk-jog, walk-trail, walk-English categories.

Anna Hannett rides in the walk-trot/ jog trail event. She won a silver medal in this competition.

Wayne Carter placed 1st in the walk-trot/job trail/obstacle event. Sarah Dickinson placed 3rd in this event. Anna Hammett placed 2nd in her competition. In the walk equitation event, Austin Kraese won 2nd, Amanda Lowe won 1st, and Mary Randall placed 2nd. In the walk trail/obstacle event, Jackie Morgan won 4th, JW St. Clair won 2nd, and April Towler won 1st.

In the walk English equitation, Wanda Morgan won 3rd, Justin Thompson, 8th, and Isaac Wieser won 4th. Mary Randall won 2nd in the walk equitation.

St. Mary's would not be able to offer this sport without the support of Greenwell Foundation.

This year, the Charlotte Hall Rotary Foundation presented Special Olympics St. Mary's County with a grant to help offset the cost of equestrian training at Greenwell. The donation was made in memory of Stephan Mattingly, the son of Rotarian Steve and Shirley Mattingly. This grant gives our athletes a chance to train and not worry about the expense.

JW St. Clair is assisted by two Greenwell volunteers as he competes. He won a silver medal for his efforts.

Sailing Marks 25th Anniversary; Kayaking Program Grows

St. Mary's College hosted the annual Mid-Summer Classic for Special Olympics Maryland during the last weekend of July. The weekend's activities consisted of various classes of sailing and kayaking competitions on the St. Mary's River. Approximately 50 Sailors and their partners, and 80 Kayakers traveled to Southern Maryland to enjoy the weekend's events.

In the sailing program, athletes and their skip-pers sailed on hobicats or monohulls, in various divisions—whether tending to sails, steering part of the time, or steering the full time. They were challenged by the changing wind conditions and the current of the river. Special Olympics St. Mary's County was represented by sailors were Tom Bayne (3rd), Russell Bucci (2nd), Wayne Carter (2nd), Austin Debeltz (3rd), Stephen Maras, Joey Owens (1st), Keith Stamp (2nd), and Justin Thompson (3rd), accompanied by partners Tom Moulds, Tom Tubbs, Jimmy Yurko, Tom Maras, Dan Combs, Bryan Jenkins, Al

Nader, and head coach Brenda Clarke. Athletes and skippers worked their sails and tillers to capture medals and ribbons of distinction. They have been training for eight weeks at the St. Mary's College facilities.

The weekend's activities also included a kayaking component – races of 125 meter, 125 meter slalom, 250 meter, and 500 meter lengths. The kayakers also had a great season with instructor TJ Parkes, Louis "Porkchop" Prochazka, Gwen Guy, and Rob and Kathie Wright. This year's athletes are Karla Kless, Wanda Morgan, Michelle Johnson, Kayla Woolridge, Michael Anthony, Jason Wright, Rebecca Elwell, Debbie Davis, Kyle Russell, Annie Bassford, Brandon Thompson, Isaac Wieser, Terrel Nowlin, Chris Reed, and Jayme Lorraine.

Other athletes who trained during the season were Dillon Kelley, Brady Carrigan, Shelby Alexander, and Bryan McCarthy. The water and wind conditions varied between the days of competition; however, the athletes did well. Several divisions of athletes scored within seconds of one another, indicating the close races that were held. The St. Mary's County athletes trained for eight weeks at Greenwell State Park.

Congratulations to the local athletes, their coaches, and volunteers for a successful competition. A special thanks to the staff and volunteers of St. Mary's College who help Special Olympics Maryland in executing this event.

Porkchop recited the Coach's oath at opening ceremonies. This is his third year working with St. Mary's Kayakers.

Wanda Morgan competed in the 125 Slalom, finishing in the top third of the State.

Kelsey Schramm stops on third, listening to Coach Aggie. The St. Mary's Team won second in their division.

King, Sam Huffman, Joe Quade, Antonio Queen, Kelsey Schramm, James Sewell, Robbie Thompson, Amy Trowbridge, and Donald Walker.

Our aquatics teams swam in a variety of events this year including free style, back-stroke, butterfly, breaststroke, and relays. They definitely made their coaches proud by bringing home 6 gold, 5 silver, 7 bronze, and 27 ribbons. For the first time in our history, two of our athletes competed in a 100 meter event (Barry Burris in a medley and Annie Bassford in butterfly) and a team did the 4x25 meter medley. The St. Mary's aquatics team consisted of: Annie Bassford, Barry Burris, Tom Bayne, Ronnie Noordzy, Anna Hammett, April Mielcarek, Christa Hammett, Laura Marini, Rebecca Elwell, Kyle Russell, Stephen Maras, and Wanda Morgan.

This year's bocce program grew even larger than last year's. Twenty-three athletes attended the state competition. There were very close matches between fellow St. Mary's athletes and with other counties. Bocce is a game of strategy and patience and gives our athletes a chance to demonstrate these characteristics. This year's bocce athletes are: Kim Ballard, Russell Bucci, Debbie Davis, Chong Fairclough, Laura Fender, Kristen Granger, Brian Hargan, Linda Higgs, Joanie Himes, Bob Hislop, Terri Insley, Lisa Jones, Patti Lipincott, Betsy Long, Megan Sheehan, Keith Stamp, Hope Taylor, Andy Thompson, Marshall Thompson, Peter West, Michael Wood, James Woodland, and Jason Wright. Practices were held in the lawn next to the Law offices of Norris and Duderar. Thank you for allowing us to use your lawn.

A special thanks to the coaches, volunteers, and family members who worked so hard to make this a wonderful event for our athletes.

Terri Insley plans the positioning of her throw during the Bocce competition.

Peter West was selected as the sportsmanship winner for Bocce. He will be representing Maryland at the Special Olympics World Games in China in October 2007.

Barry Burris, top, and Annie Bassford, pass each other in the medley relay.

Awards Banquet Celebrates a Great Year!

The annual awards banquet attracted almost 300 athletes and their families to celebrate the sports season from July 2006 to June 2007. St. Mary's County is proud of each athlete. Each year our athletes achieve personal and team goals that keep them moving forward and reaching new heights.

Some highlights from this year's event were: Jeffery Hagen singing one of his favorite songs, music provided by Steve and Marc Rinaldo (ski coaches), beautiful cakes donated by the Gildersleeve family, good food and companionship. This year, with the help of our families and athletes, Mary Lu Bucci received a new patio set. Connie Thompson was presented with a gorgeous gold logo necklace uniquely designed by Rick's Jewelers. Both were surprised and very thankful to everyone who contributed.
